

WORKING WITH HUBS

BRITISH YOUTH
MUSIC
THEATRE

At British Youth Music Theatre, we recognise that there are many wonderful musical theatre groups working in many music hubs and services do excellent work with young people.

We are passionate about helping these groups develop talent, progressing individuals towards a career in music theatre or one of the many related industries.

We love to see young people progress from their local theatre groups through BYMT and into professional training and work. Our Alumni is full of amazing examples of people who have done just that! Here a just a few...

Charlotte Richie

Gabriel Mokake

Sam Smith

Lauren Samuels

Fia Houston-Hamilton

Ed Sheeran

BYMT would like to help hubs nurture musical theatre talent in their local areas in which ever way is necessary:

- helping make musical theatre opportunities clearer and more visible
- shedding light on the numerous careers available in musical theatre
- working with talented performers to up their skills ready for the next level of training
- training musicians in the arts of pit band performing
- developing young musical directors, designers and technical staff
- encouraging composition and writing from an early age

*There are a number of ways hubs can partner with BYMT.
Turn over to see the choices!*

PERFORMERS (ACTORS/SINGERS/DANCERS)

BYMT Spotlight | In-school Industry Careers & Audition Day (full day)

BYMT Spotlight, our new theatre industry and careers day, immerses students into the world of theatre. We will share our passion for Musical Theatre outlining the range of careers open to them in professional theatre and, by extension, into film and TV. The day will also comprise a full audition for BYMT summer productions with the best young people being invited to join the cast of one of our summer shows. Delivered by our team of top industry professionals, sessions will include dance, acting, singing and some technical aspects of the theatre.

HUBS: Partner with BYMT and run one of the above workshops for students in your area.

MUSICIANS

BYMT PitStop | Pit Band Workshop (full day)

Our Musician Pit Band Workshops are designed to give talented musicians an immersive experience in playing in a professional pit band. This intense one-day course is for anyone aged 11-21, with at least grade 7 on their instrument, looking to learn new skills in performing in a pit band. You'll work with top theatre professionals and top level singers. You will also get the opportunity to show off your own skills in an Audition Masterclass which could lead to you being selected to join the BYMT Musician Pool.

HUBS: Partner with BYMT and run a PitStop workshop for musicians in your area.

TEACHERS

Music & Theatre - Education Conference

Our Musical Theatre Education Conference on Friday 21st Feb 2020, in partnership with Mountview Academy of Arts in Peckham, will bring teachers together to learn more about his wonderful art form. It will give opportunities to music and drama teachers to upskill in all aspects of putting on and teaching Musical Theatre in schools. Group discounts available to hubs.

HUBS: Send a group of teachers from in your area to brush up on their MT skills!
